

Winston-Salem State University Doctor of Physical Therapy Program

Clinical Education Faculty Rights and Privileges

The clinical education faculty of WSSU DPT program have the following rights and privileges:

1. The right to receive information regarding students and their previous experiences, learning styles, and any specific needs.
2. The right to review the curricular sequence and placement of the clinical internships in the DPT curriculum.
3. The right to receive assistance from the school with questions regarding student supervision/reimbursement issues.
4. The right to request individual inservices on issues specific to clinical education or relative topics given at your site. Please contact Dr. Jennifer Martin at martinjg@wssu.edu to discuss this option.
5. The right to access free CI training modules given by WSSU faculty. Please contact Dr. Jennifer Martin at martinjg@wssu.edu to gain access to these modules.
6. The right to request instruction and feedback for the web Clinical Performance Instrument (CPI).
7. The right to request library privileges by contacting the Director of Clinical Education (DCE). Please email Dr. Jennifer Martin at martinjg@wssu.edu to receive information to get your access established.
8. The right to receive an invitation to attend the WSSU DPT Research Day. Please call 336-750-8602 to receive an invitation.
9. The right to receive an invitation for your entire staff to the annual Carolina Clinical Education Consortium (CCEC) continuing education seminar. Each year the seminar pertains to clinical and teaching skills to be used in the clinic, as well as offering the basic APTA CI Credentialing Program (CIECP) course.
10. The right to receive or request a phone interview or site visit from the DCE during the clinical internships.
11. The right to request a termination of the student from your site if the student is performing in an unsafe, unprofessional manner, or not meeting mutual expectations (school, student, or site).
12. The right to request withdrawal of the student if requested disability accommodations cannot be met or requests were not communicated prior to beginning of the internship.