

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE
WSSU DPT
EARLY ASSURANCE
AGREEMENT

WSSU
BS in EXERCISE SCIENCE

Earn your BS in Exercise Science from WSSU to get a leg up on the competition when you apply to the university's highly-competitive Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program.

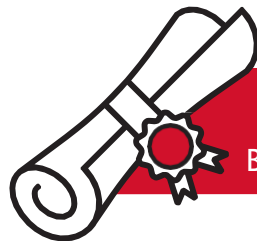

WSSU's DPT program receives well over 600 applications for 28 seats in the program. The early assurance agreement is a significant advantage for WSSU undergraduates.

WINSTON-SALEM
STATE UNIVERSITY

For more information, visit
www.wssu.edu/pt or call 336-750-2190

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE
WSSU DPT
EARLY ASSURANCE
AGREEMENT

WSSU
BS in EXERCISE SCIENCE

Earn your BS in Exercise Science from WSSU to get a leg up on the competition when you apply to the university's highly-competitive Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program.

WSSU's DPT program receives well over 600 applications for 28 seats in the program. The early assurance agreement is a significant advantage for WSSU undergraduates.

WINSTON-SALEM
STATE UNIVERSITY

For more information, visit
www.wssu.edu/pt or call 336-750-2190

ADMISSION CRITERIA

- Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from WSSU
- Cumulative minimum GPA 3.4
- Verified GRE score
(Avg. score of successful applicants: ~300)
- A minimum of 25 volunteer hours, in various physical therapy settings
- Three letters of recommendation from:
 - A professor, preferably in your major
 - A second and third letter from another professor, physical therapist, employer, or business leader
- Personal essay ■ Successful interview
- Complete Graduate Application through PTCAs-Centralized Application <https://PTCAs.webadmit.org>

WSSU DPT PROGRAM

- Accomplished faculty
- Integrative program grounded in basic, social, and clinical sciences
- Focus on critical thinking and inquiry, clinical problem-solving, research, education, management and treatment delivery to address health disparities

ACCESS You will have access to WSSU's:

- Virtual hospital
- Student-directed community clinic learning labs supervised by program faculty
- State-of-the-art Human Movement and Biodynamics Lab

TIMELINE	YEAR	FALL	SPRING	SUMMER
	Freshman					*Review prerequisites; Join Pre-PT
	Sophomore		Declare major: Exercise Science Meet with Ex Sci for eligibility and PT admissions	Apply to PT through PTCAS Obtain observation hours		Eligibility: Complete prerequisites by end of senior year; GPA of 3.4 or higher (both cumulative and prerequisites)
	Junior	Exercise Science Major Take GRE (early in case need to retake)	If you meet GPA and other criteria, your interview and acceptance to PT will be determined
	Senior	Last semester of Exercise Science	Start DPT program. Graduate with your BS.			*1st semester of DPT counts as last semester of BS

ADMISSION CRITERIA

- Bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from WSSU
- Cumulative minimum GPA 3.4
- Verified GRE Score
(Avg. score of successful applicants: ~300)
- A minimum of 25 volunteer hours, in various physical therapy settings
- Three letters of recommendation from:
 - A professor, preferably in your major
 - A second and third letter from another professor, physical therapist, employer or business leader
- Personal essay ■ Successful interview
- Complete Graduate Application through PTCAs-Centralized Application <https://PTCAs.webadmit.org>

WSSU DPT PROGRAM

- Accomplished faculty
- Integrative program grounded in basic, social, and clinical sciences
- Focus on critical thinking and inquiry, clinical problem-solving, research, education, management and treatment delivery to address health disparities

ACCESS You will have access to WSSU's:

- Virtual hospital
- Student-directed community clinic learning labs supervised by program faculty
- State-of-the-art Human Movement and Biodynamics Lab

TIMELINE	YEAR	FALL	SPRING	SUMMER
	Freshman					*Review prerequisites; Join Pre-PT
	Sophomore		Declare major: Exercise Science Meet with Ex Sci for eligibility and PT admissions	Apply to PT through PTCAS Obtain observation hours		Eligibility: Complete prerequisites by end of senior year; GPA of 3.4 or higher (both cumulative and prerequisites)
	Junior	Exercise Science Major Take GRE (early in case need to retake)	If you meet GPA and other criteria, your interview and acceptance to PT will be determined
	Senior	Last semester of Exercise Science	Start DPT program. Graduate with your BS.			*1st semester of DPT counts as last semester of BS