

Susan Hall
CURRICULUM VITAE

Discipline: Nursing	Rank: Maternity Coordinator/Chair of Academic Curriculum
Email: hallsu@wssu.edu	Campus Telephone: (336) 750-8675

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

DEGREES

Degree and year: Graduate Certification in Integration Technology: 2013

Institution: Walden University

Doctoral degree and year: Doctor of Education: 2012

Institution: Walden University

Major Field of study Ed.D. Teacher Leadership

(as shown on transcript):

Master degree and year: Master Science in Nursing

Institution: University of Phoenix

Major Field of study Health Administration

(as shown on transcript):

Bachelor degree and year: Bachelor of Science : 1977

Institution: Winston-Salem State University

Major Field of study: Nursing

Degree and year: Childhood Education

Institution: Davison Community College

Major Field of study:

(as shown on transcript) Credential in Early Childhood

SPECIAL CERTIFICATIONS AND/OR DESIGNATIONS

2003: Inpatient Obstetric Nursing: National Certification Corporation

2003: Childbirth Educator: American Nurse Credential

2002: Childbirth Educator: Certified Childbirth Education

1990: Certification in Fetal Monitoring: State Board of Nursing

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

At The University or College Level

Year

Rank, Department, Institution Name, Location

2007-present Professor, Nursing, Winston Salem State University, Winston Salem, NC

Courses Taught

4511- Maternity Nursing

1103- Success Strategies I

1201- Success Strategies II

2310- Intro. Professional Nursing 1

2501- N11 Health Assessment (Lab) Accelerated Option

1303- Intro. To Academic to Professional Nursing

1303- Talk the Talk: Health Care

NUR-566-Graduate Program Program Assessment/Evaluation

NUR-567- MSN Scholarly Project

INNOVATIONS IN TEACHING

Simulation-My dissertation "Examining the Effectiveness of High-Fidelity Simulation in Ensuring Clinical Success for Senior Maternity Nursing Students in a Baccalaureate Program"-2012

Faculty Advisor for ANE students and FNP on scholarly projects

Formal presentation on the Use of simulation at the BSN Council meeting-2010

Accepted to participate in O'K Scholar Institute Program: Collaborative approach with the librarian to improve academic success for students-June 2010

Provided and submitted to CETL, a plan for improving 5 pedagogical measures on the teaching evaluation (student) form for "Success Strategies" course-2009

Accepted to participate in Creative Teaching for Nursing Educators at the University of Memphis-2008

Class Instructor in Childbirth Education for Expectant Moms

Annual Guest speaker presenter to a Child development Class on Labor and Delivery (community service)

Participated in a workshop titled Creating Your Syllabus offered on July 28 1-4PM

Participated in revision for a new course title" Intro to Academic professional Nursing with activities to engage the learner-2012

FIELDS OF INTEREST

Nursing (Maternity) Instructional strategies to enhanced student learning

Simulation Coordinator for Maternity Nursing since 2007

Integrated Technology in Maternity Course-Blogs and a certification in Integrating Technology in the Classroom-March 2013

Professional Advisor- Freshman student to keep them on track

Infant Mortality-work with worked on a grant proposal entitled Racial Disparities in Adverse Birth Outcomes: A Life Course, Socio-ecological Examination -2012

Focus interest in working with Master students with their scholarly projects

BUSINESS/PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Year	Name and Address	Duties
1981-2007	Forsyth Medical Center	Head Nurse/Clinical Nursing
1981-2007	Forsyth Tech/Surry Community College	Clinical Maternal Child Instructor
2007-2012	Forsyth Tech ADN Clinical Instructor	High-Risk Maternity Unit

INTELLECTUAL CONTRIBUTIONS

REVIEWER: Contributor:

Intrapartum Management- 2011
Nursing Health Assessment-2010
Ricci, Maternal and Child Health Nursing Review Nursing-2010, 2011, & 2012
Journal of Best Practice-2010

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

MEMBERSHIPS IN ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

ANA
AWOHNN
Childbirth Educator
Foster Parent Association
National league of Nursing
Sigma Theta Tau
Southern Nursing Research
Treasurer of the Rho Lambda Chapter (417) since 2009
Regional 13 Communication Committee

ATTENDANCE AT ACADEMIC AND PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCES/MEETINGS/WORKSHOPS/SEMINARS/INSTITUTES

Magnet Certification Work-Shop
Inpatient OB Review Class
Preceptor Workshop
Fetal Monitoring Workshop-Winston-Salem 2008
Perinatal Workshop-Charlotte, NC 2008
Leadership workshop- Indiana Indianapolis 2008

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANTS AND AWARDS

Johnson & Johnson Leadership Academy Project-18 months

Honors

- 05/2000 Who's Who Nursing Award
- 04/2002 Nurse Excellence Award
- 05/2002 Induction into Mu Tau Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society
- 05/2007 Remarkable 45 award and Recipient of the "The Carolina 100 at Forsyth Medical Center, Winston Salem. NC
- 05/2010 Item Writer for Assessment Technologies Institute (ATI) for Registered nurses (Kansas, City)-June 2008-2010.
- 11/2013 Covington Who's Who Award
- 12/2013 Robert Wood Johnson Doctoral Advancement Project Mentor Award
Grant: Work with UNC Wilmington to collaborate Camp Bones in Forsyth and surrounding counties-to address the nursing shortage and to reach out to underrepresented and ethnic/minority groups- on the advisory committee.
- 2007-present Mentorship at a local high school student to assist in high-school goals and career path.

Selected Peer-Reviewed Publications. (Please list in chronological order):

- Hall, S. (in press). High-fidelity simulation for senior maternity nursing students. Nursing Education Perspectives. Manuscript submitted for publication.

Manuscripts in Preparation:

- Hall, S. (2014). The impact of high-fidelity simulation in enhancing critical thinking in senior maternity nursing students. Manuscript submitted for publication.
- Hall, S. (2014). Blogging: An active-learning process in maternity education. Manuscript submitted for publication.

Poster Presentations

- Hall, S. (2012). Operational definition of stable on high-risk maternity care clients. Forsyth Medical Center Annual Research Symposium: Winston-Salem NC.
- Hall, S. (2012). Examining the effectiveness of high-fidelity simulation in ensuring clinical success for senior maternity nursing students. 4th Annual You Bought the Manikin: Greensboro NC.
- Hall, S. (2012). Examining the effectiveness of high-fidelity simulation in ensuring clinical success for senior maternity nursing students. Walden University Summer Research Symposium: Minneapolis Minnesota.
- Hall, S. (2011). Simulation as a teaching strategy. Lilly Conference on College and University Teaching, Joseph S. Koury Convention Center: Greensboro, NC.
- Hall, S. (2011). Simulation as a teaching strategy in maternity nursing. Lilly Conference on College and University Teaching, Joseph S. Koury Convention Center: Winston-Salem, NC.
- Hall, S. (2010). Cooperative learning as a teaching strategy. The Teaching Professor Conference: Boston Mass.

PODIUM PRESENTATIONS

- Hall, S. (2013, April). Effectiveness of High-Fidelity Simulation in Ensuring Clinical Success for Senior Maternity Nursing Students in a Baccalaureate Program. Presented at Forsyth Medical Center Research Symposium, Winston-Salem, NC.
- Hall, S. (2013, June). Effectiveness of High-Fidelity Simulation in Ensuring Clinical Success for Senior Maternity Nursing Students in a Baccalaureate Program. Presented at Drexel Simulation Conference, Clearwater Beach, Florida.
- Hall, S. (2012, March). Item Writing Process; Enhancing your Exams-Test Analysis, Presented at the Division of Nursing Faculty Development, Presented at Winston-Salem State University, Winston-Salem, NC.
- Hall, S. (2010, February). Simulation as a teaching strategy. Presented at Winston Salem State University Bachelor Science Nursing (BSN) Faculty, Winston-Salem, NC
- Hall, S. (2009, June). Operational definition of Stable, Presented at Forsyth Medical Center Research Council Advisory Board, Winston Salem, NC.
- Hall (2009, March). Addressed key points on problem statement, purpose, and deriving on the development of a research question, Presented at NUR3303 Research Class, Winston-Salem, NC.

Research Projects

U1KHP08381: Funding through the ELITE (Emerging Learning Integrated Technologies Education) Faculty Development Program, on June 6-7, 2013 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. This research supported novice educator working with simulation.

Completed: No grant number
08/07-05/09

Susan Hall (PI)

Robert Wood Johnson/Sigma Theta Tau Leadership Academy (2007-2009), purpose was to develop the leadership skills of maternal-child nurses and nurse midwives who work with childbearing women and children up to five years of age. The MCH Leadership Academy provided learning experiences that prepared and position the individual to influence patient and practice outcomes. My role: Principal Investigator (PI) did a research study on the operational definition of stable on the high-risk maternity unit at Forsyth Medical Center, Winston Salem, NC.

No grant number

Susan Hall (PI) Submitted on 04/2013

Assessment Technological Institute (ATI) an online program to enhance nursing students “soft skills” such as communication and leadership skills. According to a recent ATI Nursing Education survey that was conducted among practicing nurses. The result revealed that 98% of the practicing nurses wanted more education to help them to develop their soft skills. A research proposal was written based on this data to conduct at Winston-Salem State University. (Not Funded)

No grant number

Susan Hall (PI) Submitted on 05/2014

The specific aim is to propose a study in applying classroom simulation as a strategy to enhance nursing students' confidence and cultivate faculty's use of simulation in their teaching. (Not Funded)

STUDENT MENTORING

Student Name (last, first)	Year	Project	Mentor
Gallagher, Kimberly	2013-2014	Obesity in Pregnant Women	Susan Hall
Ramsey, Stephanie	2013-2014	Obesity in Pregnant Women	Susan Hall
Poulose, Elizabeth	2013-2014	Doctoral Advancement Program	Susan Hall
Wright, Quashawna	2013-2014	Senior Chambers Academy/At Risk in High-School	Susan Hall

Mentoring/Advising Programs:

Advisor for RN-BSN Students

Advisor for MSN-ANE Students

Advisor for At –Risk High-school students