

Winston-Salem State University Well-being Ambassadors Application

Peers United for Leadership, Service and Education

Mission Statement

The mission of PULSE is to promote healthy lifestyle practices, skills, and knowledge that can be used during our time at Winston-Salem State University and beyond. We strive to exemplify excellence in leadership, education and service both on campus and in the community.

Vision

We envision Rams that are:

- Making conscious decisions concerning their health and well-being.
- Aware of the interaction between the environment, community, and self, and behave in ways that care for each of these responsibly.
- Culturally competent and engage in healthy communication between fellow Rams and the community.

Programs

Peer Health Educator programs are used as a space to educate students on various topics while remaining fun, causal, relevant, and interactive. All student programs are free including STI/STD testing and giveaways!

We've focused on areas such as:

- STI Testing
- HIV/AIDS Awareness
- Civility in Relationships
- The Importance of Rest

Expectations

- Attend PHE training
- Coordinate, execute and attend events and programs
- Maintain a positive attitude
- Maintain 2.5 semester GPA
- Be innovative
